

The Scranton Tribune

PUBLISHED DAILY IN SCRANTON, PA., BY THE TRIBUNE PUBLISHING COMPANY. E. P. KINGSBURY, GENERAL MANAGER.

SCRANTON, JUNE 18, 1894.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

- For Governor: DANIEL H. HASTINGS, of CENTER. For Lieutenant Governor: WALTER LYON, of ALLEGHENY.

JOHN H. PHELPS, in a published interview brands as false that portion of THE TRIBUNE'S article on Saturday which said that those who have been resisting the Sunday law of 1874...

Natural Questions.

There is, when you come to think it over, a good deal of timeliness in the curiosity of the Washington Post as to why it should take a month of costly civil war to bring the bituminous coal operators around to a point where they were willing to make slight concessions to their men.

No doubt many of the men concerned in this strike are a hopelessly bad lot. No doubt some of them do not know the meaning of the word liberty, but instead interpret it to mean unlimited license.

ALTHOUGH, ACCORDING to a recent decision by Justice Williams of the Pennsylvania supreme court, there is no such thing as legal property in dogs, the owner of premises upon which a cur is "habitually and continuously kept", is declared responsible for the said dog's misdoings.

THE FITZSIMONS movement for second place will have cordial approval everywhere but at the polls.

The Veto Problem Solved. An ingenious solution of the veto problem has been proposed by Elihu Root for adoption in New York state's revised constitution.

A Blow at Self Government.

It has been charged by certain apologists for Murphyism in Troy that the election riot which culminated in the death of Robert Ross was inspired, not by political, but by sectarian differences.

SENATOR QUAY confesses frankly that he has dabbled in sugar stocks, but disclaims improper influences or dishonest motives. The senator will respect for his candor, if not for his speculating.

maintaining the security and safety of the state. These words of stinging arraignment hit Shea less fatally than they hit the system of politics which uses professional assassins like Shea to keep itself entrenched in power.

REPRESENTATIVE HATCH, the Populist of Missouri, has hoisted his ticket for 1896. It contains the names of Senator Teller, of Colorado, for president, and Representative Sibley, of Pennsylvania, for vice president.

SENATOR QUAY, in the George Washington role of plain confession, is a refreshing innovation in the senatorial wilderness of evasion and falsification.

The Bed Rock Principle.

Information from Albany is to the effect that members of the committee on charities and education of the New York State Constitutional convention have decided that they will not report favorably on the proposition to withdraw state aid for sectarian schools.

This subject is obviously of such great importance that the proceedings of this mass meeting, as well as the later decision of the constitutional convention, will attract widespread interest.

If sectarian schools in New York are better than the state schools, it is a reminder that the latter should be improved. The trouble today is that state schools attempt too much.

With Representative Scranton home again and the initial hour of a new paper that is supposed by many to be planned at least partly in the interest of his competitor, ex-Mayor Fellows, announced for Thursday of this week, there would seem to be a bright future for the development of the paper.

Last Saturday marked the termination of Mr. J. W. Gould's connection with THE TRIBUNE, he having resigned to accept the city editorship of the promised new Evening Express.

A good many pleasant things are being said locally concerning the new paper which Mr. John H. Jordan who has just left the Truth to engage actively in his profitable real estate business; but none of these kind words overstates the fact.

Sweet Nay Aug Falls! Time yet recalls The many sportive ways In boyish holiday days.

FOR THE TRIBUNE:

Have you traveled far and wide? Have you crossed the ocean's tide? Have you seen the famous Promises? Or the Alpine Adirondacks?

But none of these have charms for me When I look back and think of thee. Where'er I stay, where'er I roam In distant lands or nearer home.

their failure to recognize this fact in their actions will simply count against the public's estimate of their honesty.

BEFORE THE graduates of the University of Nebraska at Lincoln, Professor Herron recently said some things which Governor Crouse instantly arose to repudiate.

THE PERTINENT QUESTION. Why did not the bituminous operators advance their rates without waiting for all this violence and bloodshed?

Why did they not do it? Good Teaching, Every Day. Too many of the public schools seem to fall far short of being the best possible nurseries of American citizenship.

JUST BETWEEN OURSELVES.

Representative Hines takes his victory in the Kingston post office struggle as a sure indication that he has conquered his enemies, both at home and in the cabinet.

Five Milton candidates, not being able to fit into one postoffice, Mr. Representative Wolvertson proposes to recommend for appointment the one who receives the highest vote at a Democratic primary.

For the benefit of the gentleman who has charge of outgoing mails in the Scranton postoffice, it may be said that the University of Pennsylvania is located in Philadelphia.

Moscow is yet in the throes of its post-office war and feeling on both sides continues to run high. At the same time it is undoubtedly true that the supporters of Brother Hissell's selection would have a clearer case if they could demonstrate that their man was possessed of sufficient fitness to distinguish between a registered letter and an almanac.

The committee on arrangements for the Elk's excursion to Lake Ariel next month are figuring on a big regatta, in which it is hoped to have a number of Pasadic and Newark boat clubs represented.

THE PERTINENT QUESTION.

Why did not the bituminous operators advance their rates without waiting for all this violence and bloodshed? We assume that they could have done so in the first place, because otherwise they could not do it now.

Why did they not do it? Good Teaching, Every Day. Too many of the public schools seem to fall far short of being the best possible nurseries of American citizenship.
